

Ainsley Malone, MS, RD, CNSC

Ainsley Malone is currently a Clinical Practice Specialist with the American Society for Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (ASPEN), an organization dedicated to safe, efficacious and high-quality nutrition care. Ms. Malone is also a Dietitian member of the Nutrition Support Team at Mt. Carmel West Hospital in Columbus, Ohio where she is involved in the management of patients requiring enteral and parenteral nutrition.

Ainsley is a coauthor of the May 2012 published consensus statement addressing characteristics recommended for the identification and documentation of adult malnutrition.

Ainsley is a leader in malnutrition related activities having served as a representative to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Malnutrition Workgroup and serving as a member of the Global Leadership Initiative in Malnutrition working group. She recently served on the 2017- 2018 Ohio Malnutrition Prevention Commission.

April 2019