

Mary D. Litchford, PhD, RDN, LDN

Dr. Mary Litchford is an internationally recognized speaker, author, and consultant to healthcare organizations. She is president of CASE Software & Books, a professional and educational resource company.

She served as President of the National Pressure Injury Advisory Panel from 2017-2019 and was one of the NPIAP representatives on the International Clinical Practice Guideline Governance Group. She was the sole RDN on the International Guideline Governance Group.

Her most recent publications include, Nutrition & Pressure Injuries: Putting the New Guideline into Practice CE program and textbook chapters "Biochemical, Physical, and Functional Nutrition Assessment" in Krause's Food & Nutrition Care Process, 2020 and "Drug-Nutrition Interactions" in Integrative & Functional Medical Nutrition Therapy, 2020.

She received the Excellence in Consultation & Business Practice Award from the Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics for her contributions to translate nutrition science into real world applications for patients.

September 2020